Java Runtime Environment. Hello, I have a fair knowledge on java language, but not real knowledge on java VM, for the same I am trying to develop a program which reads data from pdf file. (A program which reads data from another program's output file) in that program I have to read the text present on the first page in the pdf file. How to start with it? Please solve my problem. Thanks in advance. Never be afraid to use the word "Flexible" in a tag. Remember that what the Flexible tag is for is to give you the flexibility to use whatever language you like. Thanks guys. I've managed to get it to work. Just learnt a lot of very useful information during this. Thanks 1. What does this mean? Error:Could not create the java virtual machine. A fatal exception has occurred. 2. What do I do to fix it? Error:The operation attempted on an object which is not of type com.sun.jdi.connect.spi.SPIInitializationException 3. Is there any other way of getting a reference to the native methods available inside an object? Error:Could not create the java virtual machine. A fatal exception has occurred. com.sun.jdi.connect.spi.SP
