Note: If you are using Windows Media Player 11, then the saved video will open a tabbed window instead of a single player. In this case, the video in the library will be played first, and only then automatically - the video on the local machine. This window is called the Video tab. 2.2.1 Free software The program for recording video from the computer screen (to DVD, Blu-Ray, HD DVD) is called Free Video Recorder. With it, you can record any movie / video / clip, and you can also record streaming video from satellite or cable TV. When you start Free VideoRecorder, you can see the program settings window (Fig. 2.27). Rice. 2.27. Setting up Free VideoDiag To record video, you need to open an editing window, select (one of four) files (for example, a movie) and burn it to your computer. If necessary, change the file size, select the quality, resolution, audio track, etc. In the free version of the program, only one change of settings is available. The commercial version has added settings for recording audio in wav format. After pressing the OK button, the window will write the file. After recording the video, you can select the save format, select the save time, recording quality, turn on / off the microphone, load / remove from the buffer [405.75Mb] UnknownRelease Date: 2013Genre: VariousOpening: 00:01:07General Duration: 01:28:37Description:Cult RDR2 | jungle life LX DVD1.3(crack) (2009) DVDRip.
