Oh! I forgot the touchup, is there a way to make it look more messy and creepy? I also started to read the book, I'm getting 150 pages per day (informal time line) and I'm already on chapter 16 (I ve read the first 4 chapters couple of times already!). I highly recommend it!]]> Reiji Gakuto (kdrama lucky girl, nought's law, romans in japan, akassassins familia) is the real KalduvSuzum/Kalduv as her role in the game caught me by surprise. She shows up late and she also says bad things to Wanqing (her Housen sha).]]> Screenshot for POGO's 0.12.3]]> In this new update the Blueprints have become significantly more useful. No longer just a quick way to change your attire and your look (well you did have to make sure you had enough cloth strips) but this time you can set patterns that randomly affect your stats, equipment or even how abilities work for you. Also the clothing system is greatly improved, a (probably woefully easy to get issue in the past) re purposed the default clothing are now offered as

If you've pre-ordered the game – just login to your PPS account and you'll soon be able to play! I am now selling the YAOI Pants for a limited time only...They are in the best condition ever and in great shapes. These are THE BEST Pokemon related pants around.I'm actually selling them for half onink.Ideal for peple who've played X and Y. After many months, I've decided to return to the site to update. The following topics are my focus:

Pokemon Ranking!

I'm currently working on this concept. I've divided the analysis of Pokemon into three sections:

- The rankings in comparison to the ranks of other Pokemon games. Ranking from 1 – 10 in this specific game mode.
- The rankings in comparison to the time of the game. Ranking from 1 – 5 in this specific game mode.
- The rankings in comparison to the popularity/popularity of the species. This will be a little difficult since there are few information on how the pop is tracked (as of now). However, I will try to look at the species that are the most common in the region around the world.

There are many new entries. Please have at it. I'm sure I've missed some of these entries from the past. I plan to add every entry I can. The following sections are my new focus. Will it depend on the ranking? I don't know. But I'm giving it a shot. First batch of challenges:

Special Attacker – Not as strong as the regular attacker.
