McLaughlin, Judge, dated November 12, 1955. In the same order, the judge entered the following notation: "Per Conn, Kincaid, & Brown, attorneys for defendant, who have stated they will not object to the allowance of $500 per month as and for the support of the minor child, Charlotte M. Kincaid, hereafter referred to as `Charlotte' will and he does not object to the same being paid by the executor or administrator as and for the support of said child." Now, in an answer to this order, it appears that the courtappointed receiver has filed his account, and there has been a hearing upon it, and the amount fixed as above named was fixed as and for the support of the minor child during her minority. Hence, appellant's *417 basic contention, that the decedent, under the plan here involved, had left nothing for the support of the child, is without merit. As to the appellant, the only contention which we have not previously discussed, and which
