omitted). The “subjective” nature of the behavior does not alter this basic principle. Cf. Depel v. Brown, 7 Vet. App. 226, 229 (1994) (finding an “abandonment” of a claim under 38 U.S.C. § 5107(a) where there is “as much indication of a desire to continue as of a desire to abandon”).

This is a question of law that we review de novo.

Schafrath v. Derwinski, 1 Vet. App. 589, 592 (1991). After careful review of the record and the Secretary’s briefing, we agree with the Board and conclude that the Board complied with the directives of the Board in Huskey. See 38 C.F.R. §

20.1103(b) (2019) (“The Board will decide all questions of law and fact necessary to a decision by the Board.”). We have considered the parties’ arguments and have considered the law as it relates to this case. We conclude that the Board’s analysis was consistent with applicable law and regulations and that no error of fact or law appears in the Veteran’s appeal. See 38 C.F.R. § 20.1103(b). Therefore, we need not discuss the merits of that reasoning further. Id. III. Conclusion

Upon consideration of the foregoing, the December 27, 2018, decision of the Board is affirmed. Each party to bear its own costs.

AFFIRMED.
