What's New In?

This is a user-friendly astrology software that allows you to quickly and easily create accurate birth charts and read point-and-click interpretations. TimePassages is especially designed for users interested in astrology who want to calculate and interpret transits, display natal midpoints and calculate Solar Arc progressions. Features: ? Calculation and interpretation of Sun-Sun, Sun-Neptun and Sun-Moon transits: ?

View transits and progressions on the whole chart, on any point, on each arc or on a natal chart. ? Fully documented with examples. ? Password protection for your data. ? Whole Moon chart. ? Solar Arc display, calculation of Moon, Mercury, Venus, Jupiter, Uranus and Neptune transits: ? Natal display of Sun, Moon and Ascendant; Mercury, Venus, Jupiter, Saturn and Pluto midpoints. ? Calculation of Solar Arc progressions and progressions on the individual planets. ? Multi-line display of the aspects and progressions (lines) on the whole chart and on the natal chart. ?

Whole Solar Arc display (only applicable for a chart with several Solar Arcs). ? Support of Moon-Pluto, Moon-Uranus, Moon-Neptune and Sun-Neptune aspects, progressions and exchanges. ?
Supports a file containing transits of all signs and fixed ascendant as of any date; thus allowing to perform calendar back-calculations. ? Supports a file containing all transits from 1850 to the present; thus allowing to perform real time back-calculations. ? Supports a file containing transits of all planets for all signs. ? Calculate and interpret the solar arc progression of any planet: Mars, Mercury, Venus, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, Pluto and Chiron. ?

Accurate definition of transits: In transits, all planets are included in their definition. ? Calculation of solar arc progressions. ? Support for start and end dates. ? Prompts you for birth data; no manual entry of the data is necessary. ?

Horoscope selection: ? Choose a natal chart or create a new one. ?

Enter birth time. ? Enter birth place, if you wish. ? Choose a natal chart, a transit chart or a transiting chart. ? Enter a start and an end date. ? Only if a transiting chart is selected, enter the transits. ? Choosing the transiting horoscope only displays the transits for this particular horoscope. ? In many cases, the transits in the first and last transits are not displayed due to the limitation of the display windows. ? If the chart displays a few planets, the progressions of the planets are calculated for the whole chart. ?

The progressions can also
